

Resolution 1943-01

a resolution

Mr. Gibson introduced to the effect that the special patrol service conducted for a period of fifteen days by the Belle Meade Police in the interest of enforcing a stricter adherence to the 30 mile speed limit, be continued throughout the month of September. He emphasized that school starting up again increased the need for protective measures. This motion was seconded by Mr. Cooney. All voted in favor of it and the city Manager was so instructed.
